Wylie's Smith Library to Host Comic Book Night out

Wylie, TX, Sept. 25, 2014 – Three successful comic books artists will discuss their writing and illustrating techniques and experiences at Smith Library's Comic Book Night Out on Oct. 7, from 5 – 8 pm. Joe Eisma, Brian Delaney and Mike Lopez will be on hand to answer questions. Free comic books, courtesy of Urban Legends, will be given out at 5 pm, while supplies last. The artist Q&A begins at 6:30 pm.

Eisma is the artist and co-creator of New York Times Best Seller series, "Morning Glories," published by Image Comics. The series has been nominated for a Will Eisner Comic Industry Award. Eisma has also worked on "Hoax Hunters," "Existence 3.0" and "Dynamo 5," also from Image; "Higher Earth," from Boom! Studios; and "Cobra" from IDW Publishing. He also works in the game industry, having contributed to iPhone, iPad, Nintendo DS and Xbox Live platforms. Read more at www.supajoe.com.

Delaney is the writer and artist of his own web comics, "The Silver Sparrow," "BloodMachines" and "WMN," which can be seen on his online publishing site, www.silversparrowcomics.com.

Lopez has a graphic design background and has been a creative/art director for over 18 years. He recently began his own web-based comic project called "The CELL Organization," which can be seen on Facebook at The CELL Organization.
